ROVING APACHE INDIANS.

Several Small Parties and Numerous Tracks of Others Seen on the Gila and Frisco Rivers.

S. M. DeLong, a ranchman, living on the Gila river, was in town Saturday. He informed an Enterprise scribe that small bands of Apache Indians were scattered about the south end of the Mogollon range, and in the mountains on either side of the Box canyon of the Frisco. Only a short time since, two of the tribe camped near Mule Springs without any effort at concealment. A couple of weeks ago five hunters from Clifton, while traveling in the Frisco country, met four Apaches in a narrow box canyon near Coal creek. The Indians dropped their guns but downward upon the ground, and gave every indication of their peaceable intentions. The white men spoke to them but the Indians would not reply, although addressed in both English and Spanish. The white men stood to one side while their red skin neighbors passed by. Mr. DeLong saw the tracks of three Indians crossing from Mogollon creek to the Frisco river. He, in company with another ranchman, followed the tracks for several miles, but could not come up with the red rovers. Tracks of Indians are more than plentiful frequent in the immediate vicinity of Shelly's ranch on Mogollon Creek, and at the ranches on the Gila near the mouth of Mogollon creek. While the Indians have committed no wrong, yet the settlers are considerably alarmed, fearing that if the redskins found one of them conveniently alone in an isolated spot the temptation to secure a good horse or gun might cost the settler his life. The Apaches are too treacherous to trust, and should be kept upon their reservation.—Silver City Enterprise.

LOOKOUT

For A Band of Hold-Ups.

Word reaches here from Raton that several notorious characters who are believed to be members of an organized gang of hold-ups operating in Colorado, Texas and New Mexico were run out of town there night before last and are supposed now to be in or about Las Vegas. Following this gang of bank robbers, express and depot safe blowers, are a number of foot pads and petty thieves and the operations of the latter in Trinidad and Raton have been so bold as to stir the people to the highest state of indignation. Both towns have been making it warm for these cattle and at Raton there was a citizens' meeting to consider ways and means for ridding the place of the presence of these fellows. Accordingly official notice was served upon them and they pulled their freight, as it were. A Raton man, who is visiting Las Vegas today, declares he saw the same gang about the streets here last evening and advises the authorities to keep a sharp lookout for them.

Since the above was written it is learned that a band of smooth hold-ups who have been operating in Pueblo and Denver are supposed to have reached here last night and the officers are on the alert for them. In several instances ample precautions have been taken to give the visitors a hot reception in case they make any nocturnal efforts to "do" this town. The officers have them spotted, and the Optic's advice to them is to move on.—Las Vegas Optic.

GILLET TO BE EXTRADITED.

The Cattle King To Be Surrendered On Proper Requisition Papers.

A special to the Globe Democrat from Las Vegas, New Mexico, says: D. H. Howard, a cattle dealer of Abilene, Kan., who is $40,000 short on Gillett, the Kansas plunger, passed through Las Vegas en route from Mexico to Topeka, where he will ask the governor to issue requisition papers for the transfer of Gillett into the custody of the Kansas state authorities. Howard and two detectives have been on Gillett's trail for ten days. They discovered his whereabouts in Chihuahua City. With him is the Fort Worth attorney, Troxall, who helped him in his flight. Gillett would have been promptly arrested but for the defective extradition laws. It was feared that, if arrested, aided by his attorney, they could make good their escape, so it was considered best to leave the two detectives to shadow them until such time as matters could be arranged to capture and extradite them without the possibility of a hitch in the proceedings.

Gov. Ahumada was called upon. Howard says the governor treated him kindly, and after hearing his statement and the story of Gillett's conduct, very strongly intimated that, notwithstanding the extradition laws, properly executed legal documents on behalf of the American authorities would fetch Gillett back to Kansas.

Mr. Howard further stated that by 10 o'clock this morning he thought two of Gillett's co-conspirators would be under arrest at Abilene, as he had telegraphed last night to the city marshal at Abilene, stating the facts in his possession and requesting the arrest or detention of these two parties. He added that he (Howard) had seen Gillett in Chihuahua, and had even gained access to Gillett's room and secured there highly important papers bearing upon Gillett's transactions. Howard also said that Gillett was living in style in Mexico but very secluded. He related one instance where, in making a trip down the Mexican Central road out of Chihuahua and back, Gillett and his lawyer friend took a Pullman state room which cost them $7 and paid the porter $30 for bringing the meals in to them.

FELL DOWN STAIRS

A Resident of Chihuahua Street Met With a Serious Accident Last Night.

T. M. Cooney, father of Mrs. W. F. Hempel, residing at 124 Chihuahua street, met with a serious accident Sunday night, which for a time it was feared would result fatally to him. Cooney fell from the top of the stairway, leading to the upper story of the dwelling, and was picked up in an unconscious condition.

The accident occurred at bed time when Mr. Cooney, who is about 65 years of age, was on his way to his room located on the second floor. He had reached the topmost step when he stumbled and fell backwards, rolling to the bottom. A lighted lamp, which he carried in his hand, was shattered, and fortunately, an account of the small amount of oil therein, there was no explosion, but the flame was extinguished.

Mr. Cooney was unconscious when picked up and remained in that condition for some time. A physician was hastily sent for and restoratives applied. The examination revealed the fact that Mr. Cooney had been badly bruised about the head and shoulders and for a time it was feared that the shock of the fall would prove too severe for a man of his years and his recovery was considered doubtful, but this morning he was reported to be resting easy and not dangerously injured.

Heavy Damage Done by the Storm.
This cold snap and heavy fall of snow has caused a great deal of damage to many of the merchants and property holders of the city. Among those who suffered considerable damage was Messrs. Schutz Bros. the shoe men. In their place of business a large pipe, which is incased in the walls and carries off the surplus water from the second floor of the building, froze and burst on Saturday night, causing heavy losses among their fine line of shoes.

A great number of boxes in which the shoes come were destroyed and some of the goods damaged. The exact amount of the damage done has not been carefully calculated, but it is thought by them that it will amount to $1,000.

The Union Clothing house also suffered a loss by the heavy snow breaking in the skylight and dropping a great pile of snow on some of the finest overcoats in stock. The amount of damage here it is thought will reach $500.

The rear end of the Wigwam building received considerable damage. The snow on the roof melted, the drain pipes were frozen so that they were not able to carry off the water. The plastering gave way on the ceiling, and it will probably cost $50 to replace it.

The same amount of damage was done to the Parlor saloon from the same cause.

Excursion Party.

A party of excursionists arrived here yesterday. The party was under the supervision of the Flower excursion company and was in charge of W. R. Whitehead. Most of the members are eastern capitalists.

The personnel of the party was J. M. Meehan, N. J.; A. W. Moore, Jersey City; C. G. Manfull, Rochester, N. Y.; Don C. Howard, Buffalo, N. Y.; C. R. Merrill, Del.; S. S. Moore, Mass.; Wm. H. Thompson, N. J.; I. F. Ives, N. Y.; J. G. Condit, St. Louis; P. R. Smith, Jr., S. Manfull, of New York; Elmer J. Hunt, Chas. Sturge, C. Eberhardt, R. C. Flower, Geo. Ed. Mearing, C. H. Mosher, of New Jersey; T. S. Hoyt, and C. F. Tully, of Chicago.

The party are being personally conducted by Dr. Flower himself, as soon as they arrived in the city on the T. P. early yesterday morning they took breakfast at the Pierson and were then taken across the river in wagonettes. The entire party left over the S. P. yesterday.

New Map of El Paso.

H. K. Theel, expert draughtsman in the employ of Major Wimberly, city engineer, has prepared one of the most complete maps of the city ever exhibited. The map was got up for use in the city engineer's office and was intended to show the new sewer system as it will be when completed and to show other projected extensions. To do this it was necessary to show each subdivision of the city, with all streets and alleys.

The map is up to date and every lot and tract of land within the corporate limits is exhibited thereon and it is pronounced to be the most complete map of the city yet made.

No Police Court.

There was no police court this morning as there was only one Mexican behind the bars awaiting trial and he was put off until this afternoon's term of the court.

Jim Smith was run in Saturday night for fighting; he left a dollar as a recognizance bond and had not showed up this morning for the trial. His arrest was made by Franco.

Idelfonso Ramirez was arrested by Harold for theft of goods under the amount of $50 and was transferred to the county jail and the precinct authorities notified.

Juan Sanchez was in the jail last night on the charge of drunk and assault and battery. He was about frozen this morning when told to come out of his cell. After thawing out a little before the stove he was let out to come back later.
